Kukla opens office in Lisbon

Munich shortsea specialist continues organic growth

In keeping with this year's 80th company anniversary, the Bavarian logistics company opens its 8th location in the Portuguese metropolis. "We have been one of the market leaders in the field of shortsea shipping on the Portuguese market for more than two decades, so it was high time we were finally present on the market under our own flag," says Group CEO Knut Sander. He also explains: "With this next step we want to continue on the path of our dynamic growth. It is important to us that it is organic growth. We continue to refrain from company acquisitions.

With immediate effect, Paula Dias as managing director will represent Kukla locally. Ms. Dias has many years of experience in the Portuguese market in forwarding and shipping companies and is very well connected locally. Kukla Portugal LDA will take care of the further expansion of short sea traffic to Northwestern Europe and the Mediterranean. Ms. Dias also sees very good market opportunities Kukla's Deep Sea activities.

Kukla Portugal is located in the heart of the capital on Rua Xavier de Araujo nr 10 escritorio 10, 1600-226 Lisboa, p.dias@kukla-shipment.com;
